Form follows function is a principle associated with 20th-century modernist architecture and industrial design which says that the shape of a building or object should primarily relate to its intended function or purpose. For some, the very mention of pleated pants is enough to evoke flashbacks to the worst menswear fashions of the '80s and '90s. With current trends favoring flat-front cuts, the question of whether you should wear pleats today is often answered with a resounding "no." Sedalia is a city located approximately 30 miles (48 km) south of the Missouri River and, as the county seat of Pettis County, Missouri, United States, it is the principal city of the Sedalia Micropolitan Statistical Area, which consists of Pettis County.
